

Know Your Chicago

Designed to promote education in civic leadership by enabling the people of Chicago to become acquainted with the larger functions of their city. Lectures by distinguished Chicagoans will be supplemented with tours to key points in Chicago.

This is the seventh annual series presented by the Woman's College Board and University College, The University of Chicago. The co-operating groups in 1955 are: Metropolitan Housing and Planning Council, Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago, Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry, the Junior League of Chicago, the Chicago Crime Commission, and the League of Women Voters of Chicago.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE offers adults the resources of the University of Chicago. The Downtown Center, at 19 South La Salle Street, gives credit and informal classes from early morning to late at night, including some programs for Master's degrees. The Home-Study Department offers correspondence courses on the University level. The Radio Office produces the University of Chicago's radio and television programs. The Union Education Service works with trade-union leaders. The World Politics Program fosters community discussion groups. Community self-help in human relations problems is encouraged by a special staff. Separate brochures are available on these, as on such other enterprises as the Basic Program of Liberal Education for Adults. The Executive Program and the M.B.A. Program are offered this year by the School of Business at 190 East Delaware Place.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE BOARD is a non-profit organization of the alumnae of 27 liberal arts colleges for women. It sponsors for the Chicago area a series of radio programs based on current campus activities of member colleges. The Board is also an associate member of the Chicago Educational Television Association, Channel 11. Complete information about the colleges is provided by a continuously revised Handbook and an Executive Secretary with offices at 30 North Michigan Avenue, where impartial college counseling is given without charge to supplement guidance in secondary schools. Additional public services include Alumnae Study Groups, presentation biennially of an Educational Forum, and the joint sponsorship of the "Know Your Chicago" program.
