This series, now beginning its second decade, is sponsored by the Woman's College Board and University College of the University of Chicago in co-operation with the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry, the Chicago Crime Commission, the Junior League of Chicago, the League of Women Voters, the Metropolitan Housing and Planning Council, and the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago.

This year, the Know Your Chicago Committee is presenting a program which attempts to analyze our city in the light of achievements of great cities of the past. Four fundamental themes: politics, welfare, culture, and trade and industry will be developed historically with focus on the contemporary greatness of Chicago as an example of a vigorous, thriving American city.

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE is the adult educational branch of the University of Chicago. Its Downtown Center, now located at 64 East Lake Street, makes available to the intelligent, concerned adult in the Chicago area the intellectual resources of the University. It offers credit courses in more than forty fields and special non-credit programs of liberal and professional education. Among the latter are the Basic Program of Liberal Education for Adults, the Fine Arts Program, the Center for Programs in the Mass Media, the Center for Programs in Government Administration, the Office of Special Services to Business and Industry, and a series of Special Courses, including seminars, workshops, and tours. All these programs are described in detail in the new 1959-60 Annual Prospectus catalogue, which is available on request from the Downtown Center, 64 East Lake Street, Financial 6-8300.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE BOARD of Chicago, established in 1933, is a non-profit organization serving twenty-eight liberal arts colleges and their local alumnae. It is a co-sponsor of the "Know Your Chicago" series, an associate member of the Chicago Educational Television Association, and a sponsor of radio programs by member colleges. Other services include free college counseling for high-school girls and publication of an Alumnae Club Guide and a Handbook of Information about member colleges. Admissions conferences are arranged with college representatives, and placement counseling is provided. Headquarters for all these services are in Room 1801, 30 North Michigan Avenue, ANdover 3-4981.
